

Documents on Diplomacy: Exercises

Global Change

"Our policy is derived from a larger view of global change"

...Commitment of the United States to the belief that fairness, and not force, should lie at the heart of our dealings with the nations of the world."

President Carter

Explain these names/terms on the back of this exercise:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------|
| 01: Most favored nation status | 09: Joe Biden |
| 02: Human rights | 10: Glasnost |
| 03: Freedom of immigration | 11: Perestroika |
| 04: "Diploma tax" | 12: Detente |
| 05: Brain drain | 13: Emigrate |
| 06: International protests | 14: Immigrate |
| 07: Senator Henry "Scoop" Jackson | 15: Bilateralism |
| 08: Congressman Charles Vanik | 16: Carter's humor |

Carter's Five Cardinal Principles for Foreign Policy:

Is fairness, not force the same as Human Rights? How so?

Fairness is to _____ as Human Rights is to _____